ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL: THE BLOOD OF CHRIST

Blood is often not a pleasant subject. It appears in such uncomfortable phrases as “blood and guts,” or “blood, sweat and tears.” The sight of blood makes many squeamish. Because of infectious diseases, blood is treated with no small amount of caution. But blood is a very prominent biblical theme. And just like the phrase used by the Red Cross's blood donation program, “Gift of life,” when the Bible speaks of blood, it's all about life. Jesus shed His holy, precious blood to give us the gift of life eternal. This Lenten Bible study series focuses on this gift of life – the blood of Christ. Six Sessions, Sundays: Feb. 18 - Mar.
