APRIL, 2024

Our Mission: To proclaim the Gospel message of salvation in Jesus Christ and fulfill the Great Commission of Matthew 28:19—Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Blessed April!

Thank you for reading our monthly connections. Our goal is to provide you with as much information as possible about events here at church, of which you are an important part.

This month I would like to introduce 3 new pages!

1. The first page is thoughts on stewardship. The Biblical definition of stewardship is "Utilizing and managing all resources God provides for the glory of God and the betterment of His creation." We are so blessed! The question is how do we use the many, many gifts God gives us over and over and over. I hope these thoughts might help our perspective on God's gifts and how we use them. (page 7)
2. The second one contains 2 Bible verses for your family to memorize. The goal is to provide 2 verses each month for your family to memorize. Maybe as part of your daily devotions. Possibly after your closing meal prayer. Or you might wish to learn this just before going to bed. Give it a try! (Page 15)
3. The third page is a coloring page. Many adults like to color, but so do many children. This page might give you an opportunity to color with your children or they might prefer to color them on their own. All you need to do is print out the page, grab your crayons or colored pencils and color away! (Page 16)

Numbers 2 & 3 might be a great opportunity to involve those precious young people in the Word.

Give them a try!

Bob

“Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths.” 2 Timothy 4:2-4

Fruit of Patience

Those are Paul’s words to Timothy, but were meant for all the people who would hear that letter, and for us as well. We certainly live in a time where there are many myths and false teachings; where there are many people with “itching ears,” who listen to those who tell them what they want to hear instead of what they need to hear. And, if we’re being truthful, we can fall into that trap, too. And sometimes false teaching can sound good and deceive Christians.

So how important is good and faithful preaching and teaching! And to hear it and receive it regularly. We may not like to be shown how sinful we are, but we need it. We may not like many of the truths of God’s Word that go against what our current culture says and where it wants to go, but we need the truth. We need to repent, we need forgiveness, and we need a God who we can rely on for everything and at all times.

In the verses above from St. Paul, he tells Timothy to reprove, rebuke, and exhort - we like to do that! Correct others, tell them they’re wrong. Just look at all the rebuking that is on social media everyday! But then he also adds; with complete patience and teaching. Some translations say careful teaching. That is, don’t just fire away, carefully teach. And don’t expect the results to be quick - be patient. Sometimes good teaching, mind formation, and heart transformation take time.

Patience, though, seems to be in short supply in our world today. We want what we want and we want it now! But God takes the long view of things. He’s in it for the long haul. So we need to be, too. Don’t give up on someone because they haven’t come to church the first, second, or even third time you asked. Don’t give up when what you say seems to fall on deaf ears. Don’t give up when the Word doesn’t seem to be working. It is. God promised that it would. Sometimes those seeds take a long time to grow. Sometimes they grow in unexpected places. But God is working. Keep going.

And as for the patience we need? God will provide that, too. It is one of the fruits of the Spirit listed in Galatians 5: love, joy, peace, patience . . . So pray for patience. Ask the Spirit to work that in you. And pray for those with itching ears. Pray for those who have wandered off into myths and who do not listen to the truth. And pray that the Lord may give you opportunities to speak the truth - in patience and love! - to others, and for the Lord to work through that Word. He will. Be patient! And be prepared to be surprised.

In Christ,

Pastor Schneider

"I remain rather convinced of a few simple biblical principles of stewardship (Luke 14:28; Prov. 22:7). A significant one is that we should not spend more than we take in. In fact, we should make an effort to spend slightly less than we receive. 'We took some in. We spent some. And we had some left over at the end of the year.' That's an ideal financial report in my book!"

Whose Is It Anyway?

If you have ever bought or sold a house, you are acquainted with the concept of a “title search.” Before you can sell your house, and before anyone else will feel comfortable putting down the money to buy it, you have to prove that you really own it. So a title company looks through the public records to ensure that you bought it from the person who really owned it, who bought it from the person who really owned it before that, all the way back to the earliest records of your state, including when your state was only a territory or colony of England.

Peak into a preschool classroom during playtime and you’ll see a simplified version of this. A child starts playing with a ball, but another child says, “That’s mine: I had it first.”

You can’t understand the Seventh Commandment without understanding this concept of ownership or title. As the Small Catechism puts it:

You shall not steal. What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not take our neighbor’s money or possessions, or get them in any dishonest way, but help him to improve and protect his possessions and income.

Your neighbor’s possessions are his: you don’t have a right to take them. And likewise, your possessions are yours. Ownership and property rights are foundational to any functioning society.

But there is something deeper to know about ownership, and that is the question of who has the title and ownership to you? Paul says, “Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price” (1 Cor. 6:19–20).

If you yourself are owned by God, then of course everything that you own, you really only possess by God’s leave: all of it, at bottom, belongs to Him since you belong to Him. For you were bought with the blood of Christ.

This notion is the foundation of all Christian stewardship. It all belongs to God. It should all be used for things that bring honor to His name, blessings to our neighbors and the extension of His kingdom.

St. Peters EV. Lutheran Church
Trustee's Meeting
March 2024

Problems fixed this month:

1. Church water leak verified
  - a. Next steps are to repair drywall, paint, and replace ceiling tiles
  - b. Announcement will be put in the bulletin for a congregation drywall being wanted for repairing the drywall only. All other tasks will be done by the trustees.
2. Gravel lot divots
  - a. Matthew Lucas put on some gravel to fix some areas, but the lot will need new gravel over its entirety soon.

Old Business:

1. LCMS road signs
  - a. Completed all 3 signs for $100 a piece
  - b. Reid Sparks is to manage payment and transport
2. Copy Machine Contract
  - a. New copier arriving before Easter
3. I.T. Upgrades
  - a. BRad is waiting to hear back from Andrea Pendleton on the possibility of the Foundation board funding these upgrades and repairs
4. Mulching
  - a. Mr. Hackman has agreed to have one of his classes spread mulch around the church, in the garden, and at the parsonage.
  - b. Hackman requested that he form a quote for the mulch himself and either we pay directly or reimburse the school for that purchase.
5. Parsonage Basement Moisture
  - a. Brad got a quote for installing new gutters and gutter guards on the parsonage (Faulty gutters are cause for the moisture seeping in the basement walls)
  - b. This will be $2100 for new 6 inch gutters and an additional $1000 for the gutter guards
  - c. Mold cleanup contractors are getting us quotes for when the gutters are completed
6. Mowing bids
  - a. No announcement has been made in the bulletin since last meeting
  - b. An announcement will be put in for this week
  - c. Stevens' has already submitted their bid
7. Gravel lot maintenance
  - a. Trustees agreed that the weather is now permitting for grave to be put on the lot
  - b. Parking bumpers will need to be pulled before spreading gravel
  - c. Either Matthew or James Lucas will be delivering this gravel to the church
8. Future Needs Committee
  - a. Need One more trustee to attend these meetings
  - b. Brad volunteered to come to the rest of the meetings in the future with Emmitt

New Business:

1. Pizza oven exhaust
  - a. The smoke from the pizza oven being used in the basement need to be routed through the wall and directed outside
2. Bills
  - a. Concordia
    - i. $206- portals of prayer
    - ii. $500- LSB annual subscription
    - iii. $350- Hymn copyright annual subscription
3. Church Secretary monitor
  - a. The power supply for the current computer monitor is cutting in and out and causing a blank screen
    - i. Reid Sparks mentioned approving getting a new monitor and Nick Stahl agreed
    - ii. Brad will be purchasing a new monitor
4. Back door magnetic door locks
  - a. For a few weeks, the magnetic door lock on the rear entry doors of the church has been coming off of the door and dangling by the wires
  - b. B&C electric has the contract for maintaining the lock system in the church and has the parts to fix it
  - c. Will be repaired this week
5. Parsonage stone cracking
  - a. Pastor noticed a crack in the side of the parsonage that is significant in size
  - b. Brad said he will reach out to someone who can be hired to fill the crack
6. Collapsed drain
  - a. There is a collapsed drain by the sidewalk going from the church to the school which is around 3-4ft in diameter
  - b. Brad said will be filling the hole with stone and dirt
7. Magnetic lock wiring molding
  - a. There is adhesive molding for the magnetic door lock system wiring that is exposed around the church
  - b. This is deemed to be a trustee task and not a part of the contract with B&C Electric for maintaining the locks.
8. Water heater for the kitchen is not working
  - a. Brad said he would clean out the water heater this week
9. Council meeting Trustee representation rotation
  - a. Emmitt proposed a rotating calendar signup for all trustees to attend council meetings in shifts
  - b. This was received well by the board and will be implemented from now on.

Next Trustees meeting is April 3rd, 2024

APRIL 7 SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Risen Christ Breathes His Peace in the Holy Absolution

Acts 4:32-35

1 John 1:1-22

John 20:19-31

The crucified and risen Lord Jesus appeared to His apostles on the first Easter Sunday. He “came and stood among them,” and with His Word and the wounds in “his hands and his side,” He granted them His peace (John 20:19–20). He sent them as ministers of the Gospel in His name to bestow the life-giving Holy Spirit for us and for His whole Church through the forgiveness of sins (John 20:21–23). Through this apostolic ministry, He calls us to believe that He “is the Christ, the Son of God,” so that by such faith we “may have life in his name” (John 20:31). The apostles “have seen and heard” this divine life manifested in the flesh of Christ, and those who succeed them in this apostolic ministry now proclaim that same Absolution to us, so that we “too may have fellowship” with the risen Christ, with the apostles and “with one another” (1 John 1:1–7). The one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church lives by “their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus,” and all who believe this Word are “of one heart and soul,” because in Him they truly have “everything in common” (Acts 4:32–33).

APRIL 14 THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The Preaching of Repentance and Forgiveness of Sins Makes Us Pure

Acts 3:11-21

1 John 3:1-7

Luke 24:36-49

The risen Lord Jesus taught His disciples “that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead” and “that repentance for the forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations” (Luke 24:46–47). Therefore, St. Peter preaches repentance and forgiveness to the people of Jerusalem. As he proclaims that Jesus fulfilled all that “God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets” (Acts 3:18), he also convicts the people of their sin, because they “delivered over and denied” this Lord Jesus and “killed the Author of life.” Yet God “glorified his servant Jesus” and raised Him from the dead (Acts 3:13–15). St. Peter calls the people to repent, so that their “sins may be blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord” (Acts 3:19–20). Through this forgiveness of sins and by faith in this forgiveness, the Father shows His love for us in order that “we should be called children of God; and so we are” (1 John 3:1). Thus, we hope in Him and are made pure even “as he is pure,” because “he appeared in order to take away sins, and in him there is no sin” (1 John 3:3, 5).

APRIL 21 FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, Lays Down His Life for the Sheep

Acts 4:1-12

1 John 3:16-24

John 10:11-18

The Lord Jesus is “the good shepherd” who “lays down his life for the sheep” (John 10:11). His life is not taken from Him, but He lays it down willingly, of His own accord, because He knows and loves the sheep. As the One sent by the Father, He has the “authority to lay it down” and the “authority to take it up again” (John 10:18). So has He done, and now He continues to love and serve as the Good Shepherd of the sheep by the voice of His Gospel. He thus calls all people into the fold of His Church, so that there may be “one flock, one shepherd” (John 10:16). That is why the apostles “were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead” (Acts 4:2). Since “there is salvation in no one else,” His voice rings out to this day through the preaching of His name, “for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12). His voice comforts our hearts against all condemnation and gives us courage to “love one another” and “to lay down our lives for the brothers,” as He laid down His life for us (1 John 3:16, 23).

APRIL 28 FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus Christ is the True Vine Who Bears Much Fruit in Us

Acts 8:26-40

1 John 4:1-21

John 15:1-8

“God is love,” and He has manifested Himself to us by sending “his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him” (1 John 4:9, 16). By the ministry of the Gospel, “he has given us of his Spirit,” so that we also believe and confess “that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh.” In this way, we “abide in him and he in us,” and we “love one another” (1 John 4:2, 7, 13). Such divine love is exemplified in Philip’s preaching of “the good news about Jesus” to the Ethiopian eunuch. And when “they came to some water,” the eunuch was baptized into the very Gospel that Philip had preached (Acts 8:35–38). That Ethiopian was thereby grafted into “the true vine,” Jesus Christ (John 15:1), just as we are. Already we are clean because of the Word that Christ has spoken to us and by the washing of water with His Word. We now abide in Him by faith in His forgiveness. As He abides in us, both body and soul, with His own body and His blood, He “bears much fruit” in us (John 15:3–5).

Acolytes: 8:00: Tyler Tormoehlen & Matthew Sitterding

10:30: Morgan Wessel & Charlotte Garrison

Holy Communion @ 10:30

John 14:19

Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live.

John 14:27

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.
